MARINA INN AT GRANDE DUNES OFFERS FAMILIES AN EXTENSIVE EASTER BRUNCH

Marina Inn Encourages Families to Start the New Season Making Memories

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. – This year, the first day of spring also signals the beginning of the 2008 Easter weekend. Families are invited to soak up the mild weather and relish the fresh tastes of spring with a sumptuous Easter Sunday Brunch on Sunday, March 23, from 11:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Nautilus Ballroom at Marina Inn at Grande Dunes.

Guests are encouraged to stop for a complimentary family portrait in their “Easter Best” before enjoying the delicious Easter Brunch prepared by the Executive Chef James Clark and culinary experts of Marina Inn’s upscale restaurant WaterScapes.

The brunch menu offers guests an array of fresh spring tastes from local sources. Guests can savor Pecan Chicken Salad, Creek Shrimp Salad, and Black Bean and Plantain Salad, or choose from traditional fare, such as Omelets made to order, Southern Grits, and Leg of Spring Lamb. Gourmet offerings include Grilled Salmon with Crispy Sun-dried Tomato Risotto and Basil Reduction and Pan Roasted Carolina Amberjack with Pineapple Relish. For the discerning child’s palette, the kids’ menu includes Chicken Fingers, Mini Corn Dogs, Macaroni and Cheese, and a Fruit Salad. If you still have room for dessert, Marina Inn tempts you with a decadent dessert plate featuring Fruit Tarts, Trifles and Easter Cookies.

While dining, guests will enjoy entertainment by the Judy Duva Duo and a special appearance by Peter Cottontail. Children of all ages are invited to gather on the Grande Lawn for three separate Easter Egg Hunts; ages five and under begins at 11:00 a.m., ages six to 10 begins at 11:30 a.m. and ages 11 and older begins at noon. Easter Brunch is $38.00 for adults and $9.95 for children under 12. To make reservations, please call 843-315-6031.
