MARINA INN AT GRANDE DUNES TO OFFER “KIDS STAY, PLAY AND EAT FREE” PACKAGE

May 26, 2009, Myrtle Beach, S.C. — Representatives from the AAA four diamond Marina Inn at Grande Dunes today announced they will offer a “Kids Stay, Play and Eat Free” package from June 1 through August 31.

Offering the perfect location for an affordable and luxurious family getaway, families that stay at the Marina Inn this summer will have access to a wide range of amenities including an oceanfront cabana that offers beach chairs, towels and light dining; a children’s activity program; four onsite dining options; an infinity edge outdoor pool; hot tubs; an indoor pool; a sauna and health club; two championship golf courses; and an award winning tennis club.

“We always look forward to the summer at the Marina Inn,” said Pam Shelley, director of sales and marketing for the Marina Inn at Grande Dunes. “Our family friendly package allows guests to enjoy an affordable and luxurious getaway in one of the most popular family vacation destinations in the country.”

The Marina Inn’s “Kids Stay, Play and Eat Free” package is applicable for children up to 12 years old. Room rates start at $169.00 plus tax for a grande guest room. There is also a summer special rate of 25% off the 2-bedroom villas starting at $215.00 per night with at least a 3-night minimum stay.
